Thank You, Mrs. Lambert!

As was announced in the spring of this year, Mrs. Judy Lambert, Religious Ed Director and Coordinator of Sacramental Formation, has retired following last month's Celebration of the Sacrament of Confirmation, finishing up with a class she worked with from their First Penance and Communion, and wrapping up a 29 year catechetical ministry among the young Catholics of Duryea.

Judy began her work at Sacred Heart of Jesus Parish in the summer of 1988 when Fr. Ulrich stopped by her house unannounced and informed her that she was now going to be the Religious Education Coordinator. Soon, she would also become responsible for the children of St. Joseph's Parish as the departure of both Msgr. Madus and Fr. Ulrich ushered in a new phase of combined parish life under Father Edunk, which continued under Frs. Kvedrovich, Cappeloni, and Liberatore. In 2003, as Father Rokosz became pastor of Sacred Heart/ St. Joseph's, and with Fr. Williams to assist, the CCD programs in Holy Rosary and in Sacred Heart / St. Joseph's continued on as usual. In the spring of 2009, having mourned the loss of Fr. Williams, and looking toward the establishment of one parish for Duryea, Judy faced the challenge of combining both programs, and coordinating the catechesis for over 150 children. Having served well for 29 years, Judy now looks forward not so much to retirement, but to enjoying other ways of service within our parish family.

What is important to consider in giving thanks to Judy Lambert as a parish is that she, for nearly 30 years - as we went through sickness, deaths, and scandals of pastors; through restructuring, mergers, and closures; as councils planned and re-planned, while we worried about a future for what our parents and grandparents had worked for; as we adjusted to changing Mass schedules, different pews in different churches, and even a flood, Judy, with her teams of so many wonderful volunteer teachers and aides; persisted in the religious education and Sacramental formation of our youth, uninterrupted. For this - the Church thanks you most deeply, most sincerely.

Mrs. Lambert will be honored at the 11:00 Mass next Sunday, November 19th.
 Please join us at a reception in Mrs. Lambert's honor following 11:00am Mass, 12:00pm - 2:00pm, in the Church Hall.

Actions and Consequences

Jesus said, "Keep awake therefore, for you know neither the day nor the hour."

(Matthew 25:13)

We meet Christ sometimes when we least expect it. How can you be ready to see him in all the ways he is present?

What are some surprising ways in which you meet Christ in your daily life?

Also, if you can bring in stockings to fill, that would be absolutely great! The goal is to make about 100 stockings for the children. The items and stockings are due to the school by December 4 with delivery made the week of December 11.

CHRISTMAS TREE OF HOPE This weekend we begin our annual Tree of Hope project to aid the poor or lonely in our parish and community giving enough notice so that donors could take advantage of the many sales that are sure to be popping up in the next month or so. Sponsored by our Nativity of Our Lord Parish Women's Society, this program helps those who for whatever reason might find nothing under their tree or in their stocking. Simply take a tag, and as you do your Christmas shopping, return the item wrapped with the tag attached and place in the totes in the vestibule of the church.
